Monday is Memorial day.
Another election June 7th.
Read the election proclamation.
Election day is Tuesday, June 7th.
Business already feels the effect of the late rains.
A new time table is to go into effect next month.
The city council meets Monday night in special session.
The Japanese now have the Russians pretty well bottled up in Port Arthur.
Announcements are now in order for the offices of Justice of Peace and Constable in Precinct No. 7.
After June 7th Chaves county will have another Justice of the Peace precinct in full working order.
There is a sea of yellow all around Port Arthur now. Geographies will have to be changed accordingly.
The recent rains give an object lesson as to the portions of the streets that need attention, and the street and alley committee is seeing that work is being done where it is most needed.

Fortunate it is that by law Roswell is made the headquarters of the new district. If it were not, the Republican machine that is now running politics in this Territory would make the headquarters of the district on that acre of ground which is nearest Santa Fe, regardless of any other consideration.
Carl M. Bird has long been a resident of Roswell. His experience as deputy clerk makes him familiar with every detail of the office. His Republicanism is unquestioned. He lives here where the headquarters of the district will be, and from a Republican standpoint he has every argument in his favor for the appointment to the clerkship of the new district.

Will the Territorial machine be able to override the wishes and desires of the people of the Pecos Valley concerning the appointment of a district judge for this part of the Territory. The Record does not know Mr. Mann. We only know that he has been in the Territory hardly long enough to become a voter. We have never heard of any pre-eminent qualifications that he possesses for this office. We do believe in home rule whether it be Democratic or Republican home rule. We know that in the Pecos Valley there are a dozen lawyers eminently qualified for the position that is to be filled. Can any reason be given why one of these home men should be turned down, and a stranger to New Mexico turned in.

COOL HEADS.

Every great disaster has its compensations, and the horror of the Iroquois theatre fire has brought some good results. Theatre-goers realize that but for the panic which ensued in the Chicago play-house, hundreds of lives would have been spared. The result has been to impress upon the public mind the necessity of acting with judgment under such trying conditions. At Procter's theatre in New York City the other night fire broke out, and in a short time the theater was full of smoke, and the stage a mass of flames. The audience refused to become panic-stricken. Exits were promptly opened, policemen and firemen pointed the way, and in less than six minutes 1,700 people had marched out of the theater and away from the danger zone. So coolly did the people act that not a wrap was found in the theater after the flames were subdued, and only one woman's hat was found. Had the audience become panic-stricken many deaths would have been the result. There is a lesson here that all should heed.—Commoner.
